

Fuel Oil

General Description

Fuel oil product is the residual from crude oil after the light oils, gasoline, naphtha and distillate fuels have been fractioned off. It is a heavy hydrocarbon cut rich in (poly) aromatic components.

Product Specification

PROPERTIES	VALUE*
Flash point	> 60 °C
Viscosity	approx. 1.93 cP at 80 °C

* Typical values; not to be considered as product specification.